This is the best holiday gift ever!

I have been using the direct-ship holiday wreaths from Mickman Brothers for client and family gifts for at least 10 years. They really are appreciated because they arrive via FedEx in a sturdy box, smell so fresh and are ready to hang, with a hanger enclosed in the shipping box. The earlier in the season they arrive, the better. In addition to clients, I have sent them to close friends, my married sons' and daughters' parents-in-laws, pastors and others who I want to know we are thinking of them through the holiday season. They have 0 calories, are always the right size and color, and everyone can use another one, even if they already have one! For each wreath sold they even enclose a card with your personally-composed greeting, and a note that says that a pine seedling is planted to grow a new tree, with each wreath purchased. – Kim G. / Financial Advisor

I send Mickman Brothers Wreaths to my clients every Christmas and they just love them! The quality and value is excellent, you will not find another company that can come even close to what they offer. Very easy to work with their staff. I HIGHLY recommend Mickman Brothers Corporate Program. – Kathy H. / Realtor
